

Natural Environment

Natural Environment: This float is a giant scroll that unfurls showing the game board of the Santa Clara Valley. In this game there are pieces that represent the natural features of the area, and there are pieces that represent human intervention. The Scroll implies that we are at a moment in time and what is shown is the present. The Map of the future and past will be very different.